

Henry L. Howard Scholarship

This program seeks to identify high school seniors who will attend college in 2010. Applicants must demonstrate a financial need and be goal oriented. The applicant must be a US citizen. Current college students are not eligible to apply. Recipients may use the $500.00 supplemental scholarship for the purpose of attending an accredited four-year college or university of their choice within the United States. Applicant must write a one page essay detailing how these funds will assist you in meeting your goals for college and career and a second one page essay describing what the Parade of Quartets has meant to your family or community. Application deadline is May 1, 2009
